EVERY MERCANTILE BUSINESS IN HONOLULU HAS BEEN BUILT UP BY WOMEN CUSTOMERS

EVENING BULLETIN

3:30 O'CLOCK THE BULLETIN HAS NO COMPETITOR AS HAWAII'S HOME PAPER EDITION

It is quite improbable that there is a Honolulu in trade who does not read the EVENING BULLETIN. He reads the news in it to see just what other men in trade are doing. He must, if he reasons, ask himself why these men invoke publicity. They are the men who are constantly enlarging their patronage. Why? Let him ask himself this question.

APPROPRIATION ASKED FOR KAHULUI

Congress Asked For Preliminary Survey Of Kahului Harbor

Whereas, a petition has been submitted this Chamber asking its support in securing an authorization from Congress for making a preliminary survey of the harbor of Kahului, on the island of Maui, to the end that such improvements may be made at said harbor, as it is necessary to meet the growing demands of commerce at that port; and,

Whereas, it is absolutely essential that adequate harbor and transportation facilities be provided at the principal ports of these islands in order to satisfactorily handle the present traffic and to further develop the natural resources of this Territory; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we most heartily endorse said petition and strongly recommend that an endeavor be made to secure, at the present session of Congress, an appropriation for the purposes aforesaid; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of said petition, together with this resolution, be forwarded to the Delegate to Congress from this Territory, the Hon. J. Kalanianoʻole, with a request that he use his best endeavors to secure an appropriation sufficient to defray the expense of making such preliminary survey of Kahului harbor.

The above resolution was adopted yesterday afternoon at a special meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce called for the purpose of considering a petition received from Maui, asking for the support of the Chamber in the matter of securing an appropriation for a preliminary survey of the harbor at Kahului.

The petition was a very lengthy one. It begins as follows: "We, the undersigned shippers and ship-owners doing business at the port of Kahului, island of Maui, respectfully request your aid and influence in securing an authorization from the Congress of the United States for making a preliminary survey of the harbor of said Kahului, and in support of our petition beg to submit the following facts showing the present and prospective commerce and business of said port."

The facts referred to are marshaled under the following heads: Island of Maui, giving the size, population, taxable values, areas under cultivation, etc.; present commerce of Kahului harbor, probable growth of commerce, possibilities of fresh fruit business, and a comparative statement of commerce of port of Kahului. It ends by saying:

"The strategic location of the Hawaiian Islands, and the fact that the island of Oahu is being heavily fortified, would appear to emphasize the necessity of having other harbors

LAWYERS DEPLORE WHITING'S DEATH

Resolutions of Respect Adopted By Supreme Court

The Honorable William Austin Whiting, recently an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of this Territory, having been removed from amongst us by death, the Bar Association of the Hawaiian Islands respectfully presents to this Court as a mark of respect the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the members of the Bar of this Court do hereby express as their appreciation of the high integrity and ability of the late Judge Whiting, both as an occupant of the bench and as a member of the Bar, and so sincerely mourn the loss which the Court, the Bar, and the community have sustained in his death;

Resolved, That this Court do now adjourn out of respect to the memory of the deceased;

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the records of this Court.

The above resolutions were presented to the Supreme Court this morning by Judge Antonio Perry, who was appointed by the Bar Association at its last meeting chairman of a committee of three to draft resolutions in honor of the deceased member, and were ordered incorporated in the records of the Court.

There was a large attendance of the members of the Honolulu Bar at the session of court, which was held to extol the virtues of the late Judge Whiting. Circuit Judges De Bolt and Lindsay occupied the bench with the members of the Supreme Court. In addition there were present the following members of the bar: Governor Frear, Secretary Mott-Smith, Attorney General Hemenway, W. R. Castle, A. S. Humphreys, J. L. ### Liliha'ites Prepare To Force R.T. Co. To Make Cars Connect

The Liliha street residents are preparing for war against the Rapid Transit Company. At least, they want the company to resume the 10-minute service by having the Liliha street cars connect with those on the King street line, and, while they will be satisfied if this is done peaceably, they are ready to try to compel the company to do so by other means, should this prove necessary.

The Liliha'ites arrived at this decision at a large meeting which they held last night. It was the consensus of opinion that since the injunction against the company had been made permanent, the company had not given them a satisfactory 10-minute service, in that it did not make the Liliha street cars connect with those on the other lines. This state of affairs was very unsatisfactory to the people using the Liliha line and they appointed a committee of five, which was authorized to see that the old form service was resumed, and was given full powers to take the necessary steps, through the courts or otherwise, which it might deem advisable. The following resolution was passed:

"Whereas, upon the handing down of the decision by the Supreme Court sustaining the injunction against a change in the 10-minute service on the Liliha street line of the R. T. & L. Co., the R. T. & L. Co., immediately disarranged the service on that line so as not to connect with the King street line as formerly; and, "Whereas, such disarrangement has resulted in great inconvenience to all of us here assembled; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting appoint a committee of five gentlemen to represent this meeting of the patrons of the Liliha street line of the R. T. & L. Co., and (Continued on Page 3)

Supreme Judge Upset

Judge Lindsay this morning overruled the Supreme Court. This unusual action was taken in regard to the motion of Enos Vincent, attorney for Oliver Kane, who was recently convicted of burglary in the second degree, for a new trial. Vincent cited a parallel case in the 2d Hawaiian reports, in which Judge Allen of the Supreme Court had granted a new trial.

The Hawaii Shoe Company, the local agency of the Regal Shoe Company, will soon commence business here, probably in April. Frank E. NOT YET APPOINTED

It is reported that some of the members of the Republican Central Committee denounce the action of Land Commissioner Pratt who, in appointing J. D. Tucker in the place of Tim Lyons, asked the committee for its endorsement after, and not before, the appointment was made. The matter will probably be brought up at the next meeting of the Committee.

Chairman A. G. M. Robertson stated this afternoon that he understood that the appointment had not been made as yet. He had heard nothing about any dissatisfaction on the part of the members of the Committee. A meeting would be held as soon as the application for the endorsement was made.
